Result of examination:

The submitted items were searched in the appropriate sections of the National Fraudulent Check File without effecting an identification. Appropriate copies will be added thereto.

It was concluded that the [REDACTED] signatures on the items Q14 through Q18 were prepared by one person.

It was concluded that the [REDACTED] signatures on the backs of Q1, Q4 and Q5 were prepared by one person.

Partly because of the illegibility of the signatures and partly because of the scribbled nature of the signatures, it was not possible to definitely determine whether the questioned signatures on the backs of Q9 through Q13 were or were not prepared by one individual, although handwriting characteristics in common were noted.

It was not possible to identify any of the questioned writing in this case with that of any known individual.

Q1 through Q18 will be returned to you separately. Appropriate photographs are retained.

DETAILS:

This case is predicated on the April 15, 1970 telephone call from SA [REDACTED] Squad #24, New York City, at which time he supplied the following information:

[REDACTED] Goodbody & Company, New York City, advised that he received information from [REDACTED] of A.G. Edwards & Sons Company, St. Louis, Missouri that an individual claiming to be [REDACTED] offered the A.G. Edwards & Sons Company Office in Houston, Texas, a 1,000 share of IBM stock certificate # N618638 registered in the name of Cede & Company. Supposedly, this individual had other securities in his possession at that time which he was offering to Edwards and Company, Houston, Texas. One such certificate, was a 500 share IBM certificate # Q370472 registered in the name of Dean Witter and Company.

[REDACTED] had further advised that the 1,000 share IBM certificate # 618638 registered in the name of Cede & Company, was delivered to the Goodbody Office, New York City on February 16, 1970. When an audit was made on March 6, 1970, the certificate could not be located. Officials of Goodbody and Company, New York, could testify that they have checked all of their records and that particular 1,000 share certificate was not delivered to anyone in the normal course of business and should now be in the Goodbody and Company vault, New York City. [REDACTED] further advised that there is a possibility that the 500 share IBM certificate # Q370472 may also be stolen, however, he could not be positive without further checking.

At St. Louis, Missouri

On April 16, 1970, [REDACTED] Compliance Department, A.G. Edwards & Sons, Inc., advised that on April 13, 1970, one [REDACTED] Conway Trust Foundation, and a trustee of International Christian Relief, which is part of the International Council of Christian Churches, came into A.G. Edwards & Company in Houston, Texas, and presented for sale, 13 stock certificates registered in various names.

HO 87-12150

[] stated that he talked with [] by phone who stated he had received the certificates on a bargain sale in which the donor was to receive 60% of the sale price. [] wanted to open an account in his own name which [] was reluctant to do, even though [] said he was authorized to do so by the International Christian Relief.

[] told [] that [] would handle the sale only if [] would supply a confirmation of sale to original owner and a delivery of certificate to "street names". [] told [] that he was to send 60% of the sale price to [] International Managers Association, P.O. Box 4891, Zurich, Switzerland.

According to [] [] was to meet with an individual identified only as [] apparently a director of International Christian Relief on April 16, 1970, to talk over the transaction and return to A.G. Edward and Company, Houston on that same date.

[] advised that the stock certificates had been returned to [] but a photostatic copy had been made by his Office Manager in Houston, Texas.

Dear Ken:

This letter will serve to confirm our several previous phone conversations, all of which emanated as a result of your letter of April 13, 1970, containing a list of securities that you asked me to check out through the facilities of our firm and determine whether or not they were stolen or in any other way irregular.

As I reported to you shortly after receiving your original letter, the list of securities which you enclosed had indeed been checked out on the existing list (roughly two years old) and none of these securities were found to be "lost or stolen or otherwise restricted".

When I informed you of this information and the fact that the existing list was as antiquated as two years, you instructed me to check all of the securities to determine if there were any current stop orders on any of these particular securities. As you have requested, we did initiate a further check with all of the various transfer agents, and this check is now almost concluded. When I have complete results, I will forward them to you. However, as of this date, nothing of a restrictive nature on the securities thus far checked has been turned up.

Best regards,

Sincerely,

Dear [REDACTED]:

I have been offered a large group of New York Stock Exchange listed securities (all common shares) at a very substantial discount. Although I have no reason to believe there is anything wrong with the origination of these securities, nonetheless, because I would never knowingly want to be involved in anything remotely illegal, I would appreciate your checking the attached list of securities against the records available to you and Reynolds & Company as brokers, simply to verify that these securities are not presently on any blacklist of stolen or otherwise irregular securities.

Your indication that these securities are presently okay can be made on the bottom of this list (attached) and at the bottom of this letter, simply by indicating the date, the words "list okay" and your signature, where designated. I won't need a formal letter from your company.

Thank for your help. Best regards.

Sincerely,

Kenneth G. Burnstine

"LIST O.K."

HO 87-12150

At New York, New York

Investigation conducted at the Hotel Navaro has determined that KENNETH G. BURNSTINE, P.O. Box 11045, Ft. Lauderdale, Florida, president of Karol Investment Corporation, same address, registered at the hotel on five different occasions during January 1970 to April, 1970. Numerous long distance and local calls were placed by BURNSTINE. All long distance calls were charged to a credit card, apparently number S 150 2591 017. In most instances, the hotel operator made record of the area code being called and that it was a credit card call, but failed to record the number called on the credit card number.

Those long distance calls recorded included several calls to BURNSTINE'S phone, 305-563-3323. On April 9, 1970, a call was made to [redacted] (Texas).

Because of the excessive amount of local calls made by BURNSTINE, the New York Office is holding in abeyance investigation to identify the subscribers of the numbers called to identify [redacted] pending recontact by Miami with BURNSTINE'S attorney to ascertain a phone number for [redacted].

Hotel records also show that one [redacted], [redacted] registered with BURNSTINE on April 21, 1970. [redacted] placed calls to [redacted] and [redacted], [redacted], and [redacted]. These calls were also charged to a credit card, number not recorded.

Information received from Miami Division, on June 26, 1970, advised that [redacted] for the subject, BURNSTINE, stated on June 24, 1970, that [redacted] could be reached through the following numbers:

[redacted] Air Messenger Service, 5 Beekman Street, New York City, [redacted], advised after looking at the copy of an Air Messenger Service Airbill number 9534512, that he accepted an envelope on April 21, 1970, from a white male, long hair, beard, about 5' 10", 20 years. The person paid the Service $37.00 in cash for the delivery of the envelope to the consignee. [redacted] said that someone had called his service prior to April 21, 1970, to make certain that the Service could make such a delivery. Other calls were received after April 21, 1970, because the package apparently was not received by the consignee the following day. [redacted] does not know if the callers were identical to the person who delivered the package to the Service, nor does he believe he would ever be able to recognize this man in the future.

BURNSTINE arrived at London Airport from Miami via New Ybrk on TWA flight about 10:30 A.M. on 11/7/70, and was searched by British Customs. In his possession were photostatic copies of seven stock certificates, each for 100 shares, with a red ink notation in the top left corner indicating an additional number of shares. Copies of these are enclosed, and the Bureau is requested to expeditiously determine if they have been reported stolen. EX-4

BURNSTINE indicated to British Immigration that he would remain in England approximately two weeks. Through coverage on him by [redacted] it is hoped his itinerary will be ascertained and his departure for the U. S. determined. However, BURNSTINE was extremely shaken by the Customs search and he may cut short his visit and try to return to the U. S. undetected. EX-4

It would appear that the enclosures are stolen, from information obtained by the Yard, and BURNSTINE would not have made the trip to England for any other purpose than to dispose of these securities. It is felt the copies he had in his possession were his samples and if a deal could be arranged he would have provided the originals at a later date. EX-4

Re HO rep of SA [REDACTED] 7-24-70.

Enclosed for the Bureau is a letter dated 4-22-71 from [REDACTED] Department of Protection Services, Merrill Lynch, Pierce, Fenner & Smith Inc. (MLPFS). The firm of MLPFS has requested that the original stock certificates seized by the Houston Division in instant matter be returned to them. This firm has suggested that the original certificates which are now held by the FBI, Houston, be cancelled and then returned to the FBI, Houston, to hold as evidence.

On 4-26-71, AUSA THEO W. PINSON, III, SDT, Houston, Texas, was contacted and stated that he has no objections to this course of action.

Arrangements are now being made with MLPFS to return the original certificates for cancellation to them.

The actual recovery to MLPFS is $714,200, as indicated in enclosed letter. The Houston Division is therefore claiming as recovery in this case the difference between the present value of the stock, $714,200, and the amount claimed in referenced report, $630,000. This difference is $84,200.

The Bureau is requested to credit to Houston the additional value of the stock, $84,200, since the recovery to MLPFS is $714,200, not $630,000.

Special Agent in Charge
Federal Bureau of Investigation
P.O. Box 61369
Houston, Texas 77061

Dear Mr. Jordan:

Reference is made to conversation on 4/21/71 between Special Agent [redacted] and [redacted] of this firm relative to the recovery of stock certificates which were the subject of your letter of 2/11/71. I have attached a Xerox of this letter as a means of ready reference.

As [redacted] stated, these stocks represent a substantial sum of money, namely $714,200.

Accordingly, it is requested that you consult the appropriate United States Attorney and certify to this firm as to the necessity of these original certificates being retained for evidence.

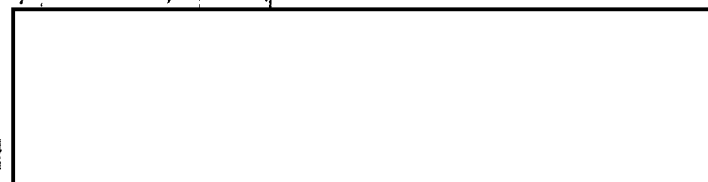

In some instances where stock has been seized for evidence, we have made arrangements with the law enforcement group involved to hand-carry the original certificates to the transfer agent for cancellation, and then return the original cancelled certificates to the law enforcement agency. The transfer agent then issues new certificates to the firm, thus giving the firm the advantage of working capital.

Also, would you please amend your records to note that the certificates which were the property of Goodbody & Co., and which were to be returned to Goodbody & Co., are now the property of Merrill Lynch and should be returned to Merrill Lynch, Pierce, Fenner & Smith Inc., Department of Protection Services, 70 Pine Street, New York, New York 10005. On 12/11/70 Merrill Lynch officially and legally acquired Goodbody & Co., and that firm is now a wholly owned subsidiary of Merrill Lynch.

According to the records of Dun & Bradstreet, Inc., which were reviewed by IC [REDACTED], the following information is reflected concerning Spectrum, Ltd. (Inc.), a subsidiary of Standard Realty Investors Corporation, 2455 East Sunrise Boulevard, Ft. Lauderdale, Florida:

"This business does not appear to be operating here any longer. The telephone has been disconnected, entrance cannot be gained to the premises, and the officers cannot be found locally. As a matter of interest, an affiliate, Instant Charge Plan, Inc., formerly domiciled here is no longer found locally".

The record further reflects that Dun & Bradstreet conducted an investigation on June 28, 1971, which failed to disclose any additional information.

An inquiry at the International Building at 2455 East Sunrise Boulevard indicated that the building manager reported that the space occupied by that company has not been occupied for the last six months and the company is believed out of business.

[REDACTED]

Character: INTERSTATE TRANSPORTATION OF STOLEN PROPERTY

Synopsis:

Subject BURNSTINE surrendered to USM, Miami, Florida, 9/27/71. Filed motion for reduction of bond and USDJ, Miami, Florida, ordered subject's bond increased to $50,000 surety. A removal hearing has been scheduled for 10/13/71, for subject, before U. S. Magistrate, Miami, Florida.

- P -

DETAILS:

On September 16, 1971, [REDACTED] advised SA [REDACTED] that [REDACTED] at the residence of KENNETH BURNSTINE, 2101 Middle River Drive, Fort Lauderdale, Florida, but that BURNSTINE and his wife are on an extended trip out of the state and will probably return home during the week of September 20, 1971.

On September 17, 1971, subject's attorney, MARTIN BLITSTEIN, Miami, Florida, telephonically advised SA [REDACTED] that BURNSTINE would surrender to the U. S. Marshal, Houston, Texas, on September 23, 1971.

On September 23, 1971, subject's attorney, MARTIN BLITSTEIN, telephonically advised SA [REDACTED] that subject would be surrendered at the office of the U. S. Marshal, Miami, Florida, at 1:45 p.m. on September 27, 1971.

On September 27, 1971, subject BURNSTINE voluntarily surrendered at the office of the U. S. Marshal, Miami, Florida, represented by attorney MARTIN BLITSTEIN. Subject's attorney immediately filed a motion for reduction of the $25,000 bond and was immediately afforded a hearing before U. S. District Judge WILLIAM O. MEHRTENS, Miami, Florida. In the hearing before Judge MEHRTENS, the U. S. Government was represented by Assistant U. S. Attorney NEAL R. SONNETT. During cross-examination of BURNSTINE by Assistant U. S. Attorney SONNETT, concerning his financial stability, BURNSTINE admitted several financial interests by himself and/or his wife, contrary to statements made in depositions by BURNSTINE and/or his wife in prior cases in U. S. District Court. These depositions were in the possession of Assistant U. S. Attorney SONNETT.

After direct and cross-examination of BURNSTINE, Assistant U. S. Attorney SONNETT requested the court, instead of reducing subject's bond, to increase the bond to $50,000 in view of the numerous outstanding judgments against the subject and the fact that SONNETT intended to review subject's testimony for possible perjury charges. U. S. District Judge MEHRTENS denied subject's motion to reduce his bond and granted the Government's motion to increase the bond, which was set at $50,000 surety bond.

On October 4, 1971, [REDACTED] to U. S. Magistrate PETER PALERMO, Miami, Florida, advised that the subject had posted a $50,000 surety bond, returnable at Miami, Florida, and a removal hearing concerning subject has been scheduled for October 13, 1971, before U. S. Magistrate PALERMO.

Transfer slips for stock were issued by First National City Bank, New York, to [redacted] reflecting that the securities were delivered from the amount of [redacted]
[redacted].

From evidence developed, it would appear that [redacted] had complete control of the securities until they were turned over to [redacted] to be sold. The sales agreement also gave control of the proceeds to [redacted]. It would appear that successful prosecution would be unlikely.

Houston concurs with Assistant U.S. Attorney on the contemplated dismissal of indictment.

RE: KENNETH GORDON BURNSTINE
INTERSTATE TRANSPORTATION OF STOLEN PROPERTY; PERJURY;
OBSTRUCTION OF JUSTICE

On February 4, 1972, Assistant United States Attorney (AUSA) HAROLD F. KEEFE, Miami, Florida, telephonically advised a Special Agent of the Federal Bureau of investigation, Miami, Florida, it has come to his attention that during August, 1971, BURNSTINE furnished a deposition in a civil case in which he testified to the effect that he did not possess any real property or other type of assets. At that time the subject was represented by Attorney [redacted] who apparently was at this deposition, noting that AUSA KEEFE is in possession of this deposition.

AUSA KEEFE stated that on or about September 27, 1971, when subject was apprehended by the Miami Office, subject was taken before U. S. District Judge WILLIAM O. MEHRTENS, Miami, on a bond reduction hearing. At this hearing the subject testified along with his attorney, [redacted] to the effect that the subject possessed certain property which he wanted to make available to the court for surety purposes in an effort to make bond.

AUSA KEEFE stated that the subject's testimony before Judge MEHRTENS is in exact contradiction to his testimony during the deposition as mentioned above. According to AUSA KEEFE it is his understanding the subject told the truth in his deposition but lied to Judge MEHRTENS during the bond reduction hearing. AUSA KEEFE requested he be contacted relative to a possible perjury investigation against subject as well as the possibility of considering prosecution against Attorney [redacted] for subordination of perjury.

On February 7, 1972, AUSA KEEFE advised he is considering prosecution of BURNSTINE and [redacted] based on the testimony given by BURNSTINE, while represented by [redacted] before U. S. District Court Judge MEHRTENS on September 27, 1971.

ENCLOSURE

RE: KENNETH GORDON BURNSTINE

AUSA KEEFE made available a copy of the transcript of the testimony of BURNSTINE before U. S. District Court Judge MEHRTENS which is summarized in part as follows:

BURNSTINE testified he resides at 2101 Middle River Drive, Fort Lauderdale, Florida, and on page 5, in answer to the question, "Do you own the home?", he answered "Yes."

On page 8, cross examination by AUSA NEAL R. SONNETT, BURNSTINE testified he had resided at 2101 Middle River Drive for three years, and in answer to the question, "Have you owned that house for the past three years?", he answered "Yes, sir."

On page 9, BURNSTINE answered that perhaps he was mistaken about owning the house. On page 10 he answered he was renting the house from Pacon, Inc., a Florida corporation. BURNSTINE indicated later in his testimony that neither he nor his wife were officers of Pacon, Inc. BURNSTINE testified he had leased the house from Pacon, Inc., for six months at a monthly rental of $1,300 and he was current in his rent.

On page 13 BURNSTINE testified he did not own the house where he lived and when asked, "Does your wife have any ownership interest?", he answered, "I can't really answer that. The house was sold to a corporate entity. I believe she may have some rights to reacquire title."

AUSA KEEFE made available a copy of a Deposition given under oath by KENNETH G. BURNSTINE on August 17, 1971, in the case entitled, "Bache & Co., Incorporated v. [redacted] and Kenneth Burnstine," 70-808 CIV-PT. A review of this deposition reflects that BURNSTINE testified he had no property and no interest in his residence. The residence was at one time owned by his wife, but transferred to Pacon, Inc., [redacted]

RE: KENNETH GORDON BURNSTINE

[redacted] Fort Lauderdale, Florida. The residence has a mortgage held by the First Federal Savings and Loan Association of Broward County in the amount of $60,000 and a mortgage held by [redacted] in the amount of $90,000.00.

AUSA KEEFE advised he would contact the United States Attorney, Houston, Texas, and determine if the United States District Judge, before whom BURNSTINE must appear for trial, has any objections to a perjury investigation of BURNSTINE concerning the testimony given by him at the bond reduction hearing before U. S. District Court Judge WILLIAM O. MEHRTENS, Miami, Florida.

AUSA KEEFE was recontacted on February 22, 1972, March 3, 1972, and on March 7, 1972. AUSA KEEFE advised he has been unable to contact the United States Attorney, Houston, Texas, and he will review the transcripts of testimony of BURNSTINE to determine if there is a prosecutable violation of the Perjury Statute. AUSA KEEFE advised he will continue his efforts to contact the U. S. Attorney, Houston, Texas.

On March 8, 1972, KENNETH BURNSTINE made available to the Miami Office of the FBI a copy of a Memorandum which sets forth a chronology of events as follows:

QUANTUM - The Quantum Corporation, 444 Madison Avenue, New York City
MAC - Military Armament Corporation, 504 Glover St., Marietta, Georgia
KIC - Karol Investment Corporation, P.O. Box 11045, Fort Lauderdale, Fla.
ALCOA - Armament Leasing Corporation of America, 3038 E. Comm'l Blvd., Ft. Lauderdale, Fla.
NAARCO - North American Armament Corporation, 3038 E. Comm'l Blvd., Ft. Lauderdale, Fla.

(KIC, ALCOA, and NAARCO are three Florida Corporations operated by Ken Burnstine. Burnstine is President of all three companies. ALCOA and NAARCO are both wholly owned subsidiaries).

[redacted] Quantum

[redacted] MAC.

[redacted] and [redacted] QUANTUM, [redacted] MAC.

[redacted] QUANTUM, [redacted] MAC.

[redacted] QUANTUM and MAC.

[redacted] for BURNSTINE, KIC, ALCOA & NAARCO.

The following is a chronological resume of events occurring between the above described parties and companies, from the period 10 December, 1970 through 21 December, 1971.

- 1) Initial exclusive Distribution Agreement between MAC and KIC covering seven states in the United States, executed 10 December, 1970.
- 2) Formalized and expanded Distribution Agreement between MAC and NAARCO (a KIC subsidiary), executed 23 July, 1971, grants NAARCO exclusive NORTH AMERICAN Distribution (sans Mexico) for MAC products and worldwide non-exclusive distributorship for the same products. NAARCO pays MAC $50,000 cash plus 40,000 shares of NAARCO stock, valued at $2 per share for these distribution rights.
- 3) Mid-September, 1971. [redacted] asks BURNSTINE to sell the NAARCO Exclusive Distributorship back to QUANTUM/MAC and to then go overseas to act as an Exclusive Representative for QUANTUM/MAC in the following markets: Europe, Africa, Mid and Near East. [redacted], at this point, makes first direct approach to BURNSTINE about doing intelligence work for the United States Government as part of BURNSTINE'S overseas responsibilities. No mention at this time of any specific government agency.
- 4) End of September, 1971. BURNSTINE meets with [redacted] at MAC Plant in Marietta, Georgia. BURNSTINE tells [redacted] he is ready to accept the Mid-September offer in principle, but will have to work out total dollars involved. Also, at this time, BURNSTINE informs [redacted] of the fact that BURNSTINE had been indicted in Houston concerning a securities transaction. After hearing facts of case, [redacted] assures BURNSTINE that indictment will make no difference in deal, and discussions concerning BURNSTINE remuneration are had. Tentative agreement is reached and BURNSTINE is to be paid $100,000 per year draw against 10% commission on all MAC products sold by BURNSTINE, plus KIC is to immediately receive $150,000 for return to QUANTUM/MAC of the Exclusive Distributorship owned by NAARCO. [redacted] at this time states, "I'll have to clear the dollar amounts with Washington, but everything sounds O.K."

- 5) Early October, 1971. BURNSTINE meets with [] in QUANTUM offices in New York. At [] instance, deal is changed to a straight repurchase by QUANTUM of the Exclusive Distributorship. Price for the repurchase is to be $350,000 paid out over 2½ years. Dollars approximately the same as the first deal, but this eliminates BURNSTINE'S draw. However, [] tells BURNSTINE that QUANTUM still wants BURNSTINE to go overseas as an independent dealer for QUANTUM/MAC and set up permanent residence in Spain, preferably the Coast of Braba. Again, [] reiterates to BURNSTINE that one of his primary responsibilities will be doing intelligence work for a certain agency of the United States Government.
- 6) 27 October, 1971. [] comes to BURNSTINE'S hotel room in New York, at [] request. Deal again is changed by []. Present are [] and [] for BURNSTINE in another unrelated matter. [] again wishes to revise the deal downward. Suggests $150,000 cash to be paid for the NAARCO Exclusive Distributorship in installments over a six-month period. BURNSTINE is to receive $5,000 per month for 36 months with 14 of those months to be guaranteed. The remaining portion of the 36 month contract to be paid to BURNSTINE if during the first 14 months he sells at least $2,000 worth of equipment. The entire $5,000 per month payment to BURNSTINE is to be a draw against 10% commission on the total value of MAC products BURNSTINE sells. At this meeting, [] explains the change in the deal again as follows: "My people in Washington at DOD would not go along with your getting in excess of $8,000 per month in draw". The meeting ends, and as [] leaves, he says to BURNSTINE, "You have been tapped by Uncle Sugar", and again goes into the discussion of how BURNSTINE will be expected to do detailed intelligence work overseas and will be in constant touch with various contacts and agents of the Defense Department who will be contacting BURNSTINE after he sets up overseas.
- 7) Closing of the deal agreed upon 27 October, 1971, is set for 4 November, 1971. Closing is to take place at QUANTUM's office. BURNSTINE shows up on the appointed date at the correct time, and is told [] is not there and he is tied up in Washington. He is due back later that day or first thing in the morning and will call BURNSTINE.
- 8) 5 November, 1971. [] calls BURNSTINE in the morning and asks him to have lunch. At lunch, [] tells BURNSTINE he was in Washington on the day before talking about BURNSTINE, and says, "My people in DOD want you overseas, but Treasury Department has a hold on you". When BURNSTINE asked [] if "His people" are the DIA, [] grins, does not deny it, and says, "I told you it was Defense Department, didn't I?" After lunch, BURNSTINE and [] go back to QUANTUM office, where [] and [] are all waiting. At this time BURNSTINE is told by [], in the presence of all others, that QUANTUM/MAC really want to sever the deal between MAC, KIC and NAARCO, and that because of BURNSTINE's personal problems at this time, he will be unable to go overseas and perform the functions previously asked of him. [] then offers BURNSTINE $75,000 total for a complete release of the NAARCO Exclusive and after much discussion and no agreement, the meeting ends at 8:30 p.m. with an agreement to meet again on Sunday, 7 November, 1971.
- 9) 7 November, 1971. [] calls BURNSTINE Sunday morning, 10:00 a.m., and asks to meet with him in his hotel prior to going to the noon meeting at QUANTUM. BURNSTINE and [] agree on $200,000 to be paid to KIC in installments over a six month period and exchange of releases and a complete severing of the relationship, including the reassigning of the NAARCO Exclusive Distributorship to QUANTUM/MAC.

- 10) 7 November, 1971. BURNSTINE and [] leave BURNSTINE's hotel and go to QUANTUM's office. Present are [] and [] in addition to BURNSTINE and []. After a 30 minute discussion of the deal agreed to between BURNSTINE and [] in BURNSTINE's hotel, [] and associates leave conference room and confer privately for 20 minutes. When they return, [] again changes the deal and offers BURNSTINE $75,000 in cash, the balance of $125,000 to be paid in notes with no maturity date, but payable only if BURNSTINE clears himself of all criminal charges in Houston, or, failing to do that, is convicted and subsequently serves a prison term and is released. An additional provision of the proposed notes are that at the time of payment, BURNSTINE's Federal Firearms Licenses must be in full force and effect. BURNSTINE absolutely refuses this deal and heated discussion with [] and others ensue. [] then asks for a chance to talk to BURNSTINE privately. In private, [] says to BURNSTINE, "If you'll take $75,000 cash now and sign a release and turn over the NAARCO Exclusive Distributorship to us, I will get your indictment quashed". BURNSTINE tells [] that he has already hired [] to do the same thing legally, and for considerably less than $125,000. BURNSTINE also tells [] that such a proposal would seem to be illegal, and that if he was serious, to put it in letter form. BURNSTINE further asked [] what agency he is representing, and why would the United States Government be willing to quash an indictment against him for $125,000? [] again says, at this point, as he has said many times in the past, that he does not represent the CIA, but "I represent the Defense Department, and am closely connected with a very sensitive agency within that department. I cannot disclose the name". BURNSTINE again asks if the agency is the DIA. [] gives a strong implication that the answer is yes, by smiling and saying, "I can get your indictment quashed with 15 words". BURNSTINE tells [] he is not interested and merely wants to be paid as previously agreed. Meeting continues all day with no agreement, and finally ends with BURNSTINE walking out at 8:30 p.m.
- 11) 8, November, 1971. BURNSTINE on request of [], goes to QUANTUM offices at noon. Present are [] and [] BURNSTINE reiterates in front of all that Sunday's deal was totally unacceptable and offers several new alternatives that would be acceptable. BURNSTINE tells [] in front of the others, that he, [] lied yesterday about being able to quash the indictment. [] says, in front of all present, "I didn't say I could quash it, I said I could quash it in 15 words". BURNSTINE advises group he is turning the entire matter over to his attorney, [] and also is going to report [] various representations to the F.B.I.
- 12) Over the next three weeks, through negotiations conducted by [] and [] agreement is reached and contract signed, settling the deal for $200,000 as agreed by BURNSTINE and [] at the first meeting of 7 November, 1971, with the exception that the terms of the payout are extended. Deal actually closed with releases, notes, cash, etc. exchanged on 21 December, 1971. After 8 November, 1971, no further mention was made of BURNSTINE doing Intelligence work for the government nor any further offers made to quash BURNSTINE's indictment.

KENNETH G. BURNSTINE, 2101 Middle River Drive, Ft. Lauderdale, Florida, voluntarily appeared at the Ft. Lauderdale Office of the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI). He stated he had information he desired to furnish regarding the Military Armament Association with whom he was formerly associated.

Mr. BURNSTINE stated that the [] of this corporation is its []. This corporation is owned by Quantum Corporation, 444 Madison Avenue, New York, New York, but does have offices at 504 Glover Street, Marietta, Georgia. [] who is also [] of the Quantum Corporation, does business out of his New York address.

Mr. BURNSTINE stated that during the period he was associated with this corporation as its representative in South Florida, he had dealings with [] and in the early part of 1971 he had reached agreement with [] and other executives of the Quantum Corporation to terminate his relationship as a manufacturing representative for Military Armament so that he could go to Europe as a representative of this corporation in that area. Mr. BURNSTINE was vague as to the exact nature of his assignment, but indicated he would be their sales representative there for which he would receive a large salary. Also part of the agreement was that the Quantum Corporation or [] would buy his holdings or franchise with the company for $150,000. u

He said, however, after his indictment in Houston on Federal charges in October, 1971, apparently they no longer desired to carry out his previous agreement.

According to Mr. BURNSTINE he thereafter met with [] on several occasions in New York City during which [] gave him "much double talk", but reneged on his previous deal.

He had during these discussions and on one occasion

he believes was about Sunday, November 7, 1971, [redacted] made the statement to him something to the effect, "I can get your indictment quashed in 15 words". He said [redacted] told him that "my people are ready to send you over seas except the Treasury Department has a hold on you". He said there was some discussion about his refusal to pay him the $150,000 for his franchise with the inference being if he would agree to take a lesser amount he could have his Federal indictment dismissed in Houston. u

Mr. BURNSTINE was extremely vague as to what was said or who was present during this discussion. He did make reference to the fact that [redacted] inferred that he had some contacts with the Department of Defense or other Government agencies. Mr. BURNSTINE was unable to state specifically what he meant in this regard, but did indicate it would be through these contacts that he could get the indictment quashed.

Mr. BURNSTINE stated he refused to have anything to do with this and said he told [redacted] "why the hell should I pay you when I'm paying [redacted] $20,000 to defend me".

Mr. BURNSTINE at this point stated he had another appointment and could not go into further detail, but that he would contact SA [redacted] to furnish additional details in the future.
